To be implemented from the academic year 2016-2017 onward

TITLE: CERTIFICATE COURSE IN HUMAN RIGHTS & EDUCATION

YEAR OF IMPLEMENTATION:- 2016-17

PREAMBLE:

The human rights movement represents a historical journey that began with the institutionalization of political and social orders. Few phenomena have had such a profound impact on history, and few movements have such a universal presence and powerful potential. The concept of human rights is dynamic, changing as society evolves. The "first generation" rights call on governments not to interfere with the exercise of civil and political rights and individual liberties. "Second generation" rights place a duty on governments to guarantee economic, social, and cultural rights. "Third generation" rights include the right to self-determination of peoples rather than individuals, to sovereignty over their country's natural wealth, and to development and special protection of disadvantaged groups.
