CASHLESS TRANSACTION AWARENESS WORKSHOP

9th January 2017

2016-2017

Activity	Cashless transactions: Ease and Vigilance
Date	09/01/2017
Students Participants	231
Venue	P.D.V.P.College Compes,Tasgaon, Dist. Sangli
Organizer	National Service Scheme Jointly organized by Bank of Maharashtra, Tasgaon Branch

Chief Guest and Resource Person:

Shri Suraj Waghmode,
Shri. Tejas Yedekar
Public Relations Officers, Bank of Maharashtra, Tasgaon Branch

Padmabhushan Dr. Vasantvada Patil College jointly with National Service Scheme (N.S.S.), National Cadet Corps (N.C.C.) and Bank of Maharashtra, Tasgaon on Cashless Transactions: Ease and Vigilance. The workshop was held on 9/1/2017. The workshop was attended by a total of 48 volunteers from the National Service Scheme (N.S.S.) 25 National Student Army (N.C.C.) 20.

At this time Bank of Maharashtra Branch - Tasgaon Public Relations Officer Shri. Suraj Waghmode and Shri. Tejas Yedekar trained the students through a demonstration of cashless transactions. He also demonstrated to the students how to do cashless transactions with credit and debit cards as well as how to do cashless transactions with Aadhar cards.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Waghmode said that the benefits of a cashless economy are many. The problem of black money and corruption makes it difficult for the government to collect taxes. The government collects a large amount of taxes from the working class, but businesses evade paying taxes. If income tax transactions are done online, the government and the people will be able to see the information of taxpayers and non-payers online. And those who try to avoid income tax will have to be restrained. Secondly, transactions can be done quickly. Cashless economy will help them to do practical work quickly. Also, farmers, workers and small businesses can do many transactions quickly. The third advantage is that corruption can be controlled. It is difficult to control corruption in a country with a huge population like India. Corruption is rampant in India. A cashless economy will help curb such corruption. Offices in government departments accept bribes in cash, but digital transactions will make it easier to track the flow of money in government accounts.

The fourth advantage is that a cashless economy will allow the government to focus on minimum wage legislation. In places where banking facilities are not available, transactions can be done easily through e-payment or mobile banking. Also, funds for welfare schemes can be easily transferred to the beneficiary's account.

Volunteers participated in the workshop and received hands-on training in cashless transactions. The trained volunteers trained 20 professionals in the college premises in cashless transactions on a swipe machine. G.Patil was the moderator of the program.

This program is coordinated under the guidance of Dr. R.R Kumbhar, Principal of the College.
