Inaugural Function /Welcome: Chief Guest Hon. Prin. Abhaykumar Salunkhe, Chairman, Shri Swami Vivekanand Shikshan Sanstha, Kolhapur

The keynote address was given by Dr. Narayan Bhosale. He said in his keynote address local history is not just the history of a place but how the history of that place changed and how he referred to the main history. Expressing the view that cultural and social factors have a very important place in this, the importance of place is further underlined by cultural factors. Often there are some shortcomings in the understanding of local history or some links are broken. Then it can be connected with the understanding of local history. So that so much local historians comment on the importance of writing and comprehension. In this presidential speech chairman Hon. Prin. Abhaykumar Salunkhe has stated about unknown history. He strongly highlighted the marginalized place of local history in India.

On the occasion of seminar one plenary session started with the speech by an eminent personality of Shivaji University Kolhapur department of history Dr. Avani Patil. In his speech Dr. Avani Patil expressed his thought on Local History Writing. He said, A keen student of civic and local history, Historians today need to look at local history in a more innovative and clinical way, discussing how to make local history research more effective in addition to the study methods of Oral History, Ethno History and Micro History. If historians have not done so the work of local history will be limited to satisfying the curiosity of the locals about the old things, and beyond that, the opportunity to write a history that is useful to non-natives will be lost. Plenary session president was Dr. Ramesh Mnaglekar Associate Professor Department of Sociology, First Grade Women's College, Belgaum Karnataka. In his Presidential Speech he pointed out the contribution of society in Local history and Cultural Identity in India. In this speech he highlight from 1970 as the changing approaches in social science.

There are 119 participants from Karnataka, Maharashtra, Delhihas been participated. Out of these 80 Participants presented their research paper related to the theme of the seminar.
